Jul 2024	5.17%	5.14%	5.16%

The 7-Day yield is the average income return over the previous seven days, assuming the rate stays the same for one year and that dividends are reinvested. It is the Fund's total income net of expenses, divided by the total number of outstanding shares and includes any applicable waiver or reimbursement. Absent such waivers or reimbursements, the returns would have been lower. The 7-Day Yield Without Reductions is the yield without applicable waivers or reimbursements. Voluntary waivers and/or reimbursements may be discontinued any time.

Expenses, Fees & Loads

Exp Ratio (Gross) - Prospectus	0.26% as of 05/30/2025

The Exp Ratio (Net) – Financial Statement reflects certain voluntary reimbursements and waivers which are not included in the Exp Ratio (Net) – Prospectus, and may be discontinued at any time. There is a contractual cap on the expenses borne by the fund, which indicates the maximum level of expenses (with certain exceptions) that the fund would pay; the respective contract expires on 07/31/2026.

Investment Objective

Seeks to obtain as high a level of current income as is consistent with the preservation of principal and liquidity within the limitations prescribed for the fund.

Strategy

The Adviser normally invests at least 99.5% of the fund's total assets in cash, U.S. Government securities and/or repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully (i.e., collateralized by cash or government securities). Certain issuers of U.S. Government securities are sponsored or chartered by Congress but their securities are neither issued nor guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury. Investing in compliance with industry-standard regulatory requirements for money market funds for the quality, maturity, liquidity and diversification of investments. The Adviser stresses maintaining a stable $1.00 share price, liquidity, and income. In addition the Adviser normally invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in U.S. Government securities and repurchase agreements for those securities.

Risk

You could lose money by investing in the fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not a bank account and is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, is not required to reimburse the fund for losses, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time, including during periods of market stress. The fund will not impose a fee upon the sale of your shares.

Ratings Information

Standard & Poor's and Moody's money market fund ratings rate the investment quality of the fund's shares and range from AAAm/Aaa-mf (highest) to Dm/C-mf (lowest). Independent rating agency fund ratings include, but are not limited to, a regular analysis of a fund's liquidity, sensitivity to market risk, diversification, operational policies, and internal controls; its management characteristics; and the creditworthiness of its assets. Ratings are not intended as a recommendation and are subject to change.

NAIC (National Association of Insurance Commissioners) is an organization of insurance regulators from the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the five U.S. territories. It was created by state insurance regulators in 1871 to coordinate regulation of multistate insurers and, when appropriate, to provide a forum for the development of uniform policy. The Securities Valuation Office (SVO), a division of NAIC, may rate a money market mutual fund either "Exempt" or "Class 1." These ratings determine how an insurer can classify its money market fund investments in its regulatory filings with state insurance departments. Mutual funds that have not been rated by the SVO are treated as equity investments for regulatory purposes, with asset valuation reserve requirements as high as 30%.

Definitions

Annualized Turnover Rate is the lesser of amounts of purchases or sales of long-term portfolio securities divided by the monthly average value of long-term securities owned by the fund. Daily Market Value The market value per share of a fund is computed by adding the total market value of the fund's investments, cash and other assets, subtracting the fund's total liabilities, and dividing the result by the total number of shares outstanding. Exp Ratio (Net) – Financial Statement is an annualized figure that reflects amounts reimbursed by Fidelity or reductions from brokerage service or other expense offset arrangements, if any, and is updated as the annual or semiannual information is available. This number may include certain voluntary waiver and caps which may not be included in the prospectus net expense ratio. Exp Ratio (Net) – Prospectus Expense ratio is a measure of what it costs to operate an investment, expressed as a percentage of its assets, as a dollar amount, or in basis points. These are costs the investor pays through a reduction in the investment's rate of return. For a mutual fund, the gross expense ratio is the total annual fund or class operating expenses directly paid by the fund from the fund's most recent prospectus after any fee waiver and/or expense reimbursements that will reduce any fund operating expenses. This ratio also includes Acquired Fund Fees and Expenses, which are expenses indirectly incurred by a fund through its ownership of shares in other investment companies, This number does not include any fee waiver arrangement or expense reimbursement that may be terminated without agreement of the fund's board of trustees. If the investment option is not a mutual fund, the expense ratio may be calculated using methodologies that differ from those used for mutual funds. Exp Ratio (Gross) – Prospectus Expense ratio is a measure of what it costs to operate an investment, expressed as a percentage of its assets, as a dollar amount, or in basis points. These are costs the investor pays through a reduction in the investment's rate of return. a remaining maturity of 60 days or less, securities that will mature or are subject to a demand feature that is exercisable and payable within five business days, and receivables from sales of portfolio securities due within five business days. Weighted average maturity This is a weighted average of all the maturities of the securities held in a fund. WAM for money market funds can be used as a measure of sensitivity to interest rate changes. Generally, the longer the maturity, the greater the sensitivity. WAM for money market funds is based on the dollar-weighted average length of time until principal payments must be paid, taking into account any call options exercised by the issuer and any permissible maturity shortening devices such as demand features and interest rate resets. For bond funds, WAM can be used as a measure of sensitivity to the markets. Generally, the longer the maturity, the greater the sensitivity. The WAM calculation for bond funds excludes interest rate resets and only takes into account issuer call options if it is probable that the issuer of the instrument will take advantage of such options. Weighted average life For money market funds, this is the weighted average of the life of the securities held in a fund or portfolio and can be used as a measure of sensitivity to changes in liquidity and/or credit risk. Generally, the higher the value, the greater the sensitivity. WAL is based on the dollar-weighted average length of time until principal payments must be paid, taking into account any call options exercised by the issuer and any permissible maturity shortening features other than interest rate resets. For money market funds, the difference between WAM and WAL is that WAM takes into account interest rate resets and WAL does not. WAL for money market funds is not the same as WAL of a mortgage- or asset-backed security. Yield The percentage of return an investor receives, based on the amount invested or on the current market value of holdings.
